

Know a Boy Who Likes to Sing?

Keystone State Boychoir Is Scheduling Auditions Now for the 2010-2011 Season

The Keystone State Boychoir is an ensemble of 160 boys aged 8 to 18 based in Northwest Philadelphia. The choir's repertoire is as diverse as its membership, and KSB members can still play sports or be involved in other outside activities.

Want to know more? Check out the KSB website at www.paboychoir.org or call 215-849-1762 x 121.

Audition for the Keystone State Boychoir!

When: Wednesday, July 28; Monday, August 23 through Thursday, August 26, 2010

Where: William Penn Charter School, 3000 West Schoolhouse Lane, Philadelphia 19144

Time: 5:00 - 6:00 pm or by appointment

Other: Auditions are low key and surprisingly fun.

Call or e-mail contact@cychoirs.org for more information or to schedule an audition appointment.